

FARM ENERGY WORKSHOP

REDUCE FARM ENERGY USE !
PRODUCE ENERGY FOR USE !

March 12, 2008 - 10:00 AM to 3:00 PM
Papa's Restaurant, Highway 81, Freeman, SD

Sponsored by the Freeman Development Corporation – Ag Action Committee, Hutchinson County Extension, and the Lower James RC&D

Featuring Energy Efficiency Information and Farm Scale Renewable Energy Production (Emphasis on Wind

Energy). Presenters include: Steve Kolbeck (SD PUC), Gillas/Scott Stern (Stern Oil Company), Brad Schardin, Chad Reisenaur, and Jeff Rud, (SE, East River and Basin Electric), GenPro Wind Systems, Mitch Faulkner/John Keimig (NRCS/Extension), Sherri Lewis (USDA Rural Development), Michael Twedt (BTU Engineering), and Nancy Larsen, Southeast Enterprise

Facilitation Project. Topics include: Farm Energy uses and outlook, Farm site, building, crop production, and livestock management to save energy, Farm Scale wind energy potential and systems (3 presenters), and technical assistance sources.

Workshop Fee is $10 ($12 at the door) for the cost of the buffet dinner and breaks. Pre-Register by contacting: Sharon Schamber, Freeman Development Corporation, 605-925-4444, PO Box 43, Freeman, SD, 57029. Facility Capacity of 75 People.